MANAGED ACCESS — Access permitted within managed controls, for example, local byelaws.

England and Wales

- Access land boundary and tint
- Access land in wooded area
- Access information point

Portrayal of access land on this map is intended as a guide to land which is normally available for access on foot, for example access land created under the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000, and land managed by the National Trust, Forestry Commission and Woodland Trust.

Access for other activities may also exist. Some restrictions will apply; some land will be excluded from open access rights.

The depiction of rights of access does not imply or express any warranty as to its accuracy or completeness. Observe local signs and follow the Countryside Code.

Scotland

- National Trust for Scotland, always open
- National Trust for Scotland, limited access – observe local signs
- Forestry Commission Land
- Woodland Trust Land

In Scotland, everyone has access rights in law over most land and inland water, provided access is exercised responsibly (Land Reform (Scotland) Act 2003). This includes walking, cycling, horse-riding and water access, for recreational and educational purposes, and for crossing land or water. Access rights do not apply to motorised activities, hunting, shooting or fishing, nor if your dog is not under proper control.
